THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.15020 of 2005

ORDER

The only grievance of the petitioner is that when he was proceeded with departmentally, the enquiry officer's report before proposing punishment was not furnished earlier to the show cause notice to enable him to file his objections.

Under the above circumstances and in view of the judgment in Managing Director, ECIL, Hyderabad v. B.Karunakar[1] the petitioner is directed to submit his objections to the enquiry officer's report already received by him within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and after the objections are received, the respondents are at liberty to consider the same and issue show cause notice thereafter proposing any punishment as per law.

With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
